We recognise that parents, carers and family members will wish to record events such as school plays, sports days etc. to celebrate their child's' achievements. Langland Community School is happy to allow this on the understanding that such images/recordings – if they include anyone other than your child – are used for purely personal family use and not posted on social media. In signing below, you are agreeing to abide by this restriction. Any parents/carers who are found to be in breach of this restriction will be not be permitted to take further photos/video footage on the school site.

If you wish to discuss this further, please contact the school office.
