Headteacher's Message

Dear Parents and Carers,

I have to start by thanking you all for your support with World Book Day. We have been bowled over by the enthusiasm for this day, which has become one of the highlights of our school year. The numerous Miss Trunchbolls have kept us under control while the Oompa Loompas have been making sure the school runs smoothly. We hope the children have had a great time and enjoyed their reward for cracking the code at the end of the day.

In this week's Gospel reading we hear about the blind man. Jesus makes a paste, puts it on the blind man's eyes and tells him to wash in a pool. When the blind man does this, he can see. Through this Gospel, we learn that Jesus is the "Light of the World" who helps us see God's love, even when others are unkind or doubtful. It's a time to celebrate hope and, like the blind man, trust in Jesus.

Have a lovely weekend.

Mrs Woodruff
