

St Mary Magdalen's Catholic Primary School

Equality Policy

Jesus let your light shine through, in all we think and say and do

This Single Equality policy outlines the commitment of the staff, pupils and governors St Mary Magdalen's Primary School to ensure that equality of opportunity is available to all members of the school community. For our school, this means not simply treating everybody the same. Rather, it means understanding and tackling the different barriers which could lead to unequal outcomes for different groups of pupils in school, whilst celebrating and valuing the achievements and strengths of all members of the school community. These include:

- Pupils
- Staff
- Parents/carers
- The governing body
- Multi-agency staff linked to the school
- Visitors to school
- Students on placement.

We believe that equality at our school should permeate all aspects of school life and that the promotion of equality of opportunity is the responsibility of every member of the school and wider community. Every member of the school community should feel safe, secure, valued and of equal worth.

At St Mary Magdalen's Primary School, equality is a key principle for treating all people fairly and creating a society in which everyone has the opportunity to fulfil their potential - irrespective of their gender, ethnicity, disability, religion or belief, sexual orientation, age or any other recognised area of discrimination.

Our school's mission statement underpins the values we hold:

The school therefore aims:

Members of the School Council have expressed their view of equality as follows:

- Equality is just as important as academic learning.
- Every person should be expected to behave as well as they can and to achieve as highly as they can.
- All people should be respected, whether they are boys or girls, adults or children, or have special needs.
- People need the right support to allow them to do their best or complete a task.
- Adults have more responsibilities than children but are not more important.
- Rewards should reflect the effort a person has put in, but it is ok to give the same reward for different accomplishments.

The School in Context

Amongst the teaching staff we have a hearing impaired teacher.

The school building is physically accessible to wheelchair users and people who rely on crutches or walking frames. There is an adapted toilet for people in wheelchairs, and a shower. The computer screen can be adapted for words to be enlarged. The school is Increasingly using Sign Along.

The demographic trends in the local area suggest little likely change in our intake.

Policy Development

This policy applies to the whole school community. It has been drawn up as a result of the outcomes of a transparent process and through consultation with: staff, children and governors.

Monitoring and Review

St Mary Magdalen's Primary School is an inclusive school, working towards greater equality in the whole school community. We use the curriculum and teaching to enhance the self-esteem of all those it serves and to provide a learning environment in which each individual is encouraged to fulfil her or his potential.

We collect and analyse a range of equality information for our pupils/students:

A range of data is collected for all pupils and is analysed by ethnicity, disability, gender and free school meals. Data includes: attainment data, attendance data, exclusions, complaints of bullying and harassment and involvement with extended learning opportunities.

We make regular assessments of pupils' learning and use this information to track pupils' progress, as they move through the school. As part of this process, we regularly monitor the performance of different groups, to ensure that all groups of pupils are making the best possible progress. We use this information to adjust future teaching and learning plans, as necessary.

Resources are available to support groups of pupils where the information suggests that progress is not as good as it should be. The governing body receives regular updates on pupil performance information.

School performance information is compared to national data and Local Authority data, to ensure that pupils are making appropriate progress when compared to all schools, and to schools in similar circumstances.

As well as monitoring pupil performance information, we also regularly monitor a range of other information. This relates to:

Reviewed in Spring 2018. To be reviewed Spring 2021.

- Attendance
- Exclusions and truancy
- Racism, disability, sexism, homophobia and all forms of bullying
- Parental involvement
- Participation in Extended Learning Opportunities

Our monitoring activities enable us to identify any differences in pupil performance and provide specific support as required, including pastoral support. This allows us to take appropriate action to meet the needs of specific groups in order to make necessary improvements.

St Mary Magdalen's Primary School is also committed to providing a working environment free from discrimination, bullying, harassment and victimisation. We aim to recruit an appropriately qualified workforce and establish a governing body that is representative of all sections of our community.

- Work with the governing body on matters relating to equality

- Steps are taken to ensure that all pupils have access to the mainstream curriculum by taking into account their cultural, backgrounds, linguistic needs and learning styles.
- All pupils have access to a curriculum that recognises attainment and achievement and promotes progression.

Note:

Under the Equality Act 2010, in very limited circumstances, an employer can claim that a certain religious denomination or belief is considered to be a genuine occupational requirement of that role. An aided school may be able to rely on this for some roles in school, particular those roles that provide spiritual leadership. However this would not apply for all staff in School.

Reviewed in Spring 2018. To be reviewed Spring 2021.

In addition, there are also instances in which a job will qualify for a genuine occupational qualification on the grounds of gender. However, only in very few instances would this be permissible, for example, where the job is likely to involve physical contact with members of the opposite sex, where matters of decency or privacy are involved.

The Measurement of Impact of the Policy

This policy will be evaluated and monitored for its impact on pupils, staff, parents and carers from the different groups that make up our school. An action plan will be published to enable an impact assessment to be undertaken at the appropriate time within a given timescale.

Publicising the Policy and Plan

We hope that people will read our policy on our website and we will endeavour to promote it throughout the year as appropriate

Annual Review of Progress

The action plan will be updated annually following a meeting with the Equality Committee in the autumn term. At this meeting the committee will have access to data showing the attainment of groups. This policy has a life span of three years and therefore we will review and revise this scheme as part of a three-year cycle.

Equality Impact Assessments

Undertaking equality impact assessments (EIAs) is similar to undertaking health and safety risk assessments. It involves predicting and assessing what the implications of a policy, function or strategy will be on a wide range of people.

EIAs were introduced with the Race Equality Duty and are now also required for both disability and gender. It is also best practice to consider age, religion and belief, and sexual orientation as part of this process.

EIAs are a way in which we can analyse all of our work (this could be a policy, procedure, project, strategy or service) to ensure it meets the needs of all our service users and that no group (in relation to ethnicity, disability, gender, age, religion and belief, and sexual orientation) is disadvantaged or cannot access our services.
