Inclusion Quality Mark (IQM) – Centre of Excellence status.

We are delighted to share that on 19th May, our school was awarded the Inclusion Quality Mark (IQM) – Centre of Excellence status.

As part of this process, experienced external professionals visited the school to observe lessons, speak with staff and pupils, and review our provision. They recognised the strength of our inclusive practice and the positive, supportive environment we have created together.

This nationally recognised award celebrates schools where inclusion is at the heart of everything we do. It reflects our commitment to ensuring that every child feels valued, supported, and able to succeed, regardless of their needs or background. We are incredibly proud of this achievement. It is a reflection of the dedication of our staff, the wonderful children in our school, and the ongoing support from our families.

Thank you for being part of our inclusive school community.

Our Poet Laureate

We are so proud of Manha who was selected as a finalist to become the young poet laureate for the West Midlands. Although Manha was not selected for the Young Poet Laureate role on this occasion, we want to emphasise just how impressive her achievement truly is. Reaching the final 20 students out of hundreds of entries is an extraordinary accomplishment and a testament to her creativity, dedication and talent. In their feedback, the judges commented:

The Thin Noodle was a really fun and creative poem. Your ideas were lively and imaginative, and it was lovely to see you sharing them with others. It was great to see you perform your poem. You clearly have a brilliant, creative spark. Keep writing, keep performing. If you can write about a noodle, you can write about anything. Well done!
