End of the week reflection

Over the past week, as our Wise Owls completed their SATs, we have once again been reminded of what a special and caring community we are. Around school, we have seen so many thoughtful acts of kindness, encouragement and consideration from children across all year groups. Quiet voices in corridors, gentle smiles, thoughtful questions and kind words have all shown just how supportive our children are of one another.

We also began our class worships this term with Little Owls, who led a fantastic worship all about the Great Barrier Reef. They shared their learning with confidence and enthusiasm, showing great courage, wisdom and a real passion for learning. It was a wonderful example of our youngest children leading with confidence and care.

We are incredibly proud of our Wise Owls. They have worked hard, shown resilience and approached SATs week with a calm and positive attitude. We hope they now enjoy a relaxing and restful weekend, knowing how proud we are of them.
