Dear Parents and Carers,

As part of our ongoing commitment to maintaining a positive, respectful and supportive school community, we have recently been reviewing our Codes of Conduct for all stakeholders, including staff, Governors and parents/carers.

Our priority is always to act in the best interests of our pupils, staff and wider school community and any decisions made by the school are carefully considered with the wellbeing, safety and education of all children at the heart of them.

As part of this review, we are sharing our updated Parent Code of Conduct. This helps to clearly set out the expectations we all share in creating a respectful and constructive partnership between home and school. It also brings us in line with many other schools, where Parent Codes of Conduct have been in place for a number of years.

We appreciate your continued support in helping us provide the best possible environment for all pupils to learn and thrive.

Kind regards

Mr Robinson (Headteacher) and the Governing Body
