Around the school!

A wonderful end to this half-term! Over the last couple of weeks, we have celebrated National Storytelling week, Online safety day, children's mental health week and our Take One Picture project with the National Gallery. We are delighted to share our interpretations of this year's chosen painting with you all at Parents Evening. A gallery will be set up in the Dining Room for you to enjoy around your appointments. Please do leave us a comment about what you have enjoyed seeing or even your own response to the painting.

I would like to say a huge thank you to all governors, parents, carers, staff and children for another half-term of hard work, learning and fun. I wish you all a very happy half-term holiday.

Mrs. Woods

World Book Day

World Book Day will take place on Thursday 5th March. Once again, we will be joining in the fun here at Roger de Clare as we never want to miss an opportunity to promote reading for pleasure. You have already received details of the puppet project that the children can start after half-term - we cannot wait to see the characters chosen! On the day itself, we will be dressing up as a favourite character or in comfy clothes to read, joining workshops across the nation along with other schools, mixing up across the school with our lucky dip reading activity and sharing the ever popular 'The Masked Reader' video with you all.
