Acceptance is our School Value this half-term. In our launch assembly this week, we thought about what is meant by Self-Acceptance and discussed how AWESOME we are!

"I'm awesome because I have diabetes" Annabelle

"I'm awesome because I'm great at football" Jude

"I'm a professional at games" Alfie

"I'm really good at drawing" Lola

"I'm great at painting" Bella

Good-luck, Mrs Cooke!

On Wednesday 17th September, Mrs Cooke will be commencing her Maternity Leave to prepare for the birth of her baby in October. On behalf of the whole-school family, I would like to wish Mrs Cooke a wonderful maternity leave, building precious memories with her family!

Mrs Eade will be rejoining the Maple Team having taught collaboratively with Mrs Ventress in Summer Term 2025. Mrs Eade's first day will be Wednesday 17th September. Mrs Cooke has shared this information with the children in Maple Class and her last teaching day will be Friday 12th September.

SUMMIT UP SEND SESSIONS

FOR DISABLED AND NEURODIVERGENT CHILDREN AND ADULTS

Summit Up is proud to be fully inclusive, offering climbing opportunities for individuals who need extra support with mobility, sensory needs, or comprehension—made possible through our dedicated volunteers, specialised equipment, and tailored resources.

We are excited to now offer NICAS Ascend, a progressive climbing awards scheme designed specifically for disabled and neurodivergent individuals. Beyond physical fitness, climbing helps build confidence, develop body awareness, foster social skills and trust, and of course, delivers the thrill of an unforgettable adrenaline rush!

SCHOOL & ADULT GROUPS

Summit Up offers bespoke group booking for SEND school and adult groups. We can tailor a session to best suit your needs. Contact booking@summitupclimbing.com to discuss your requirements.

SOFT PLAY

On Tuesdays the soft play area at Summit Up is made fully inclusive for children and young adults aged up to 18 years. Our sensory room is also available for use.
