

Dear Parents, Carers & Children

This Week

There has been lots to celebrate at Newburgh this week. Team Lucas impressed their families with everything they have learned about The Great Fire of London, our Eco Council met with a company representative to find out ways to be more sustainable at school. Our PSHE Ambassadors have chosen winning designs that have been turned into kindness stickers – look out for your children wearing these after half term; and our Guitar and Ukulele pupils performed for their families – a wonderful week. We have also completed activities for Online Safety Day and Mental Health Week.

Looking Ahead

After half term our Year 6 Maths stars have Reasoning Club then from Wednesday to Friday Team Venables have their residential at Tower Wood. The coach will be arriving at about 9.15 to pick them up and their families are very welcome to wave them off. They will be picked up from Tower Wood at 2pm on the Friday and should return to school around 4pm. Please keep the area in front of school clear of cars to allow the bus to park safely.

Parent Meetings

The calendar for next half term has been updated with a Year 1 Parents Meeting (04.03.26 at 3.30pm) about the Phonics Screening and a Year 6 Parents Meeting (10.03.26 at 5pm) about the SATs tests.

Science Club

Unfortunately we didn't get enough interest to run a second science club at this time. We will consider running this again in the future.

Church Holiday Club

Our wonderful church volunteers are looking to see if there would be any interest in a holiday club for school children on Monday 1st June (our summer two week half term break). Please complete the Holiday Club Form to let them know your views.

Responsibility for Children

A polite reminder that children are only the responsibility of school staff once they have either been signed in to breakfast club or brought into school after the school bell rings. Children left on their own before school remain the responsibility of parents until the school bell is rung.

Have a wonderful half term break.

Warmest Regards,

Online Safety Day:

This week we celebrated national online safety day and throughout school we have delivered lessons to reinforce online safety (which is a thread that runs throughout the year within our computing curriculum) as well as this year's theme of 'Smart Tech, Safe Choices – exploring the safe and responsible use of AI.' Whilst AI can have a positive impact, it is important that children understand when information true or false as well as bias. To support this message at home, attached are some Wake Up guides on the use of AI.

Please also remember that on our website we have a wealth of supportive guides on a range of issues linked to online safety from the all you need to know about Roblox and Fortnite through to the meaning of emojis. In addition to these guides, please also find the link to a guide produced by the Children's Commissioner 'What I Wish My Parents Knew' that is all about the digital world for our children.

<https://www.childrenscommissioner.gov.uk/resource/what-i-wish-my-parents-or-carers-knew-a-guide-for-parents-and-carers-on-managing-childrens-digital-lives/>

Please take some time to read the above guidance along with our dedicated website section, and if you would like more advice on a particular area of online safety please speak to your child's class teacher.
