

Governor's Privacy Notice

This privacy notice tells you what to expect us to do with your personal information when you provide us with information about you, your child or other family members.

La Salette Catholic Primary School is the data controller of the personal information we process, unless otherwise stated. This means the school determines the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data relating pupils and their families is to be processed.

In some cases, your data will be outsourced to a third-party processor; however, this will only be done with your consent, unless the law requires the school to share your data. Where the school outsources data to a third-party processor the same data protection standard that the School upholds are imposed on the processor.

Our Data Protection Officer will oversee and monitor the school's data protection procedures and ensure we remain compliant with the General Data Protection Regulation and Data Protection Act 2018.

The data protection officer can be contacted via email dpo@lasalette.havering.sch.uk

What is personal information?

Personal information can be any information relating to a living person who can be directly or indirectly identified by reference to an identifier. A personal identifier includes your name, location, online identifier and identification numbers.

The categories of information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, title, address, telephone numbers and email address)
- Date of birth
- Gender
- Occupation
- Start date
- Skills and experience
- Information acquired as part of your application to become a governor/trustee (including copies of identity checks (DBS checks, disqualification checks, information about bankruptcy, references and other information included in a CV, application form or cover letter or as part of the application process)
- Information about pecuniary or business held by you or your family members

- Information about other posts held by you
- Information about your conduct
- CCTV footage
- Information about your use of our information and communications systems
- Photographs

What is ‘Special Category’ personal information?

Some information is ‘special’ and needs more protection due to its sensitivity. It’s often information you would not want widely known and is very personal to you. This is likely to include anything that can reveal your:

- sexuality and sexual health
- religious or philosophical beliefs
- ethnicity
- physical or mental health
- trade union membership
- political opinion
- genetic/biometric data

Why we collect and use your information

We will use the data:

- When deciding about whether to appoint you as a governor
- When dealing with any processes for the election of governors
- To meet the statutory duties placed upon us

The lawful basis on which we use this information

La Salette Catholic Primary School holds the legal right to collect and use personal data relating to governors in order to meet legal requirements and legitimate interests set out in the GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018.

Generally, we collect and use personal information where:

- you have given consent
- you have entered into a contract with us
- it’s necessary to perform our statutory duties
- it’s necessary to protect someone in an emergency
- it’s required by law (e.g section 538 of the Education Act 1996)
- It’s necessary for legal cases
- It’s necessary for archiving, research or statistical purposes

Governor data is essential for the school’s operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide is mandatory, some is provided on a voluntary basis. When collecting data, the school will inform you whether you are required to provide this data or if your consent is needed. Where consent is required, the school will provide you with specific and explicit information with regards to the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

If we have consent to use your personal information, you have the right to remove it at any time. If you want to remove your consent, contact our data protection officer by email.

How long is your data stored for?

We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, insurance or reporting requirements. Details of retention periods for the different aspects of your personal information are available in our Record Retention and Deletion Policy. To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

Who we share your information with

We will not share your personal information with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. We may have to share your data with third parties, including third-party service providers and other organisations.

In particular, we may share your data with organisations including, but not limited to the following:

- The Local Authority
- The Department for Education (to find out more about the requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, please go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/news/national-database-of-governors>)
- The Education & Skills Funding Agency
- The Diocese of Brentwood
- The Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS)
- The Police or other law enforcement agencies

Your Rights

Your right of access

You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information. This right always applies and is commonly known as making a 'subject access request'. There are some exemptions, which means you may not always receive all the information we process for example if information is likely to cause serious harm to the physical or mental health or condition of you or any other person.

Information relating to or provided by a third person who has not consented to the disclosure, including images will be removed or obscured. If we can't give you some or any of the information, we'll tell you why.

To make a request for your personal information, please contact our data protection officer clearly stating:

- Your name and contact details
- The Information you want
- Any details or relevant dates that will help us process your request.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data in some circumstances.
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

How we use cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added, and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Further information on deleting and controlling cookies can be found at:
