Learning, living and growing in God's World.

"I have come that they may have life and have it to the full." (John 10:10)

News from school this week

Our British Value this half term is: Individual Liberty

Our Home School Value is: Wisdom

A huge WELL DONE to all the talented children who participated in our Music Concert at Hackness Village Hall on Wednesday. Our choir were in fine voice, the school band were fantastic and all of our soloists did themselves proud. Thank you to Mrs Gaskell for all her hard work pulling this together across two schools and to all families who came to support.

Important Messages

A reminder to parents, if suncream is brought into school, please can this be labelled and please can no aerosol suncream be brought into school.

From 2nd June there will be separate vegetarian meal option available to order on the days when the main meal contains meat or fish. Please note, this option is only available to children who we have record of being a vegetarian. Please see updated menu on page 2 for details.

KS2 Production is taking place at St Helen's & All Saints Church on Tuesday 1st July from 6pm until approx. 7.30pm. All of KS2 children will be involved in the production and we ask that they arrive at 5.30pm. The doors will open to parents and families at 5.50pm. Please advise via ParentPay for tickets.

Message from FOW.

Thank you to everyone who supported our sale on Monday. We made a brilliant £96.39 to go into the pot for school.

We do still have a lot of pre-loved uniform left. If you need anything please contact the school office and we will check our stock and get back to you.

Reminder that Derwent Valley Bridge Library Paddington Trail is from 24th May until 7th June. Please see poster on page 4 for details.

Please check your ParentPay account and clear any outstanding balances. Please could all balances be kept in credit to continue to use these services. Thank you. Thank you.
