Assertive Mentoring report

Your child will be bringing home their fifth Assertive Mentoring report today. This short report shows the progress your child has made across the first half of the summer term.

The pack will include:

- your child's self-assessment pupil profile
- spelling lists recent writing assessment (with evidence sheet)
- parental feedback form

If there is any aspect of your child's progress that you would like to discuss, please do not hesitate to contact school where Mrs Fawcett will arrange an appointment for you.

The children in EYFS and Reception will not be bringing a report home this half term.

Please do not hesitate to make an appointment if you want to discuss any aspect of your child's report. We are all very happy to talk through your child's progress.
