And finally, a few questions for parents....
Does your child have any health or medical issues / allergies?

Is there any way that school can support you as parents?

Has your child attended any nursery or preschool settings previously?

Please provide us with the name of the setting and pass on any transition information they may provide. This will help us to understand your child's current needs and the progress they have made within the setting.

Please tell us about your child and anything else that will help us to get to know them better...
