7TH SUNDAY OF EASTER: YEAR A
Parish Mass Book Page 275 Order of Mass P6,
The Nicene Creed P11

For those of us who still ‘look to the sky’ and, on occasion, experience nothing but Christ’s absence, let’s make the following prayer, taken from Thursday’s Second Reading, our own: ‘May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of Glory, give us a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring us to full knowledge of him.

May he enlighten the eyes of our minds so that we can see what hope his call holds for us, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit.’ (Eph 1:17-18). At various points in the Gospels, we are treated to a brief glimpse of heaven – the baptism of Jesus by John, when the heavens open and God’s voice is heard; the Transfiguration where Jesus is transformed in the presence of Peter, James and John; and the Ascension, when Jesus is lifted up into heaven before the disciples’ very eyes. There are times when we get the sense that we have been treated to a glimpse of heaven – like when we are moved by a ‘heavenly’ experience, piece of music, sunset or breath-taking scenery. But looking back at the Feast of the Ascension reminds us that where Jesus has gone, we hope to follow.

Elsewhere he tells us that he is going to prepare a place for us. We cannot imagine what lies in store in the life everlasting, the life beyond this life, which we hope to share with God. We can only see a reflection in this world of the splendor and beauty that awaits: ‘The world is charged with the grandeur of God’.

St. Francis of Assisi Jubilee Year

St. Francis of Assisi is best known as the patron saint of animals, ecology, and nature, having founded the Franciscan orders (including the Poor Clares). He is remembered for his radical dedication to poverty, preaching simplicity, and receiving the stigmata

Pope Leo XIV has proclaimed a special Franciscan Jubilee Year from January 10, 2026, to January 10, 2027, to mark the 800th anniversary of the death of St. Francis of Assisi. This "Year of St. Francis" celebrates his passage (death on October 3, 1226) and invites the faithful to follow his example of peace and holiness, offering a plenary indulgence.

The Apostolic Penitentiary offers a Plenary Indulgence to the faithful. You can receive this by devoutly visiting any Franciscan conventual church or sanctuary dedicated to St. Francis anywhere in the world and fulfilling the usual conditions (sacramental confession receiving the Eucharist, praying for the Pope's intentions, and being detached from sin).

All Saints Fire Exit

We have just the one fire exit in church, which apparently means we should only have 120 people in church at any one time. Trouble is, on most occasions when we celebrate 10.30am mass there are more than that in attendance. Next week we have a site meeting to create an additional emergency exit on the opposite side. This will mean we can have a maximum of 240 people in church- more than enough for now. Work is due to start 1st week in June and should last no more than three weeks. Hopefully disruption will be at a minimum for us all, with midweek mass being celebrated in one of the meeting rooms. I'm told that it should only cost a mere £14,500... a bargain at that price!
