SUNDAY 12TH JULY 2026
FIFTEENTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME: YEAR A
Parish Mass Book Page 102, Order of Mass
P6, The Nicene Creed P11

Jesus wants his followers, both the Twelve disciples and all who will later believe in him, to proclaim all that he did and taught. This proclamation now includes the good news of his resurrection. No part of the story should be ignored, nor should Jesus' words and deeds be shared with only a select few.

Jesus doesn't say that God will prevent the suffering of those who minister in his name. Instead, he assures them that God knows they are suffering for his sake. God cares about them even more than they care about themselves. If God has counted all the hairs on our head, then God is paying much closer attention to us than we think.

Jesus tells his followers that the testimony they give (or not) about him on earth will become the testimony he gives about them in heaven. His words are a warning to wayward disciples but a consolation to brave and faithful ones.

Just echo the word 'trust' as you sit in silence:
Let this gift and call of trust fill your being.
Sacred heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.
