27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME—YEAR C

Parish Mass Book Page 146 , Order of Mass P6, The Nicene Creed P11

Are there any precious items in your family that have been handed down from one generation to the next? Whether jewellery, ornaments, silverware, books, or old photos or letters, most families have certain items that are guarded carefully and kept in a safe place to be passed on to future generations. Likewise, we have stories that are passed on from parents and grandparents, which form part of our history and our sense of who we are. Today we think about another type of precious gift which must be guarded carefully – our faith, and the teachings of Jesus. In today's Second Reading, Paul reminds us that we have been 'trusted to look after something precious'. How often do we think of our faith as something 'precious'? What does our faith mean to us? The disciples in today's Gospel ask Jesus to increase their faith, but his roundabout answer reveals that this is not such a simple request – faith comes with certain responsibilities and duties. Like a treasured family heirloom, we are to look after the gift of faith we have been given, and to 'guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us'. Only then will we be able to pass this precious gift on.

Faith is not hoping God can it is knowing
He Will

October: The month of the Holy Rosary

October is a period of special devotion to Mary our Mother

To help us to sanctify this time, the Holy Rosary will continue to be prayed at 9:10am before Friday morning mass at All Saints church.

It also remains available on both St. Lewis and St. Catherine & All Saints websites. To pray via the website, choose the heading 'Videos' and then 'The Rosary'.

This is a wonderful opportunity for us to dedicate our whole community to Mary's love and care. As we reflect with Mary on the mysteries of Christ's early life, His public ministry, His Passion and Resurrection, we will grow in our understanding of who we are all called to be as followers of His way.

Pope Leo's Prayer for October

Let us pray that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice, and human fraternity.

The Holy Father also invites the faithful to join in praying the Rosary every day during October to invoke God's gift of peace and announces a Rosary in St. Peter's Square on October 11th as part of the Jubilee of Marian Spirituality.

All Saints Foodbank

If you are able to make food donations this week, could we please ask you to bear in mind that we are in need of the following Tinned Products:

Vegetables, Fruit, Rice Pudding. Long Life Milk.

Christmas Cards: This Weekend

If anyone is looking to buy their Christmas cards they are now on sale on the piety stall.

Joke of the week:

Scientists have discovered that keeping tropical fish at home can have a calming effect on the brain... they say its because of all the indoor fins!!

Sunday 5th October: Family Tea & Coffee Morning

We will be holding our Family Tea & Coffee morning this Sunday 5th October in the Francis Room after 10:30 Mass. All are welcome.

Family of Parish Walk: Rescheduled for Next Sunday 12th October

Postponed social walk at Haigh Hall, Wigan has been rescheduled for 12th October 2025. Meeting at 1.30pm in the courtyard at Haigh Hall, good parking, shops, café, crazy golf, good paths.

Family Fast Day: 2nd Collection This Weekend

CAFOD's Family fast Day was on Friday 3 October. It's a day when we're asked to pray, eat simply and give generously. Our parish's support of CAFOD this Harvest is a way for us to offer new signs of hope this Jubilee year, by giving practical help to people affected by poverty, conflict and climate change in our volatile world. Collect a CAFOD envelope from the porch to Gift Aid your donation, or give on the CAFOD website. Thank you.

Macmillan Coffee Morning

As you know last Saturday we held our Coffee Morning to raise money for Macmillan Cancer Support. In total we raised an amazing £1,030.00, which has been sent off to Macmillan. Thank you to everyone who made or donated cakes, to all who helped in any way and to everyone who kindly and very generously donated and to those who came along, we hope you enjoyed the morning.

Raffle: All three raffle prizes were claimed. The first prize, Yellow ticket 52 was a bottle of Whisky, the second prize, White ticket 249 was a Box of Chocolates and the third prize Green 156 was a fresh flower display.

Thank You for all your support.
