We understand that the Equality Act 2010 combines and builds upon the existing legislation covering discrimination and promotion of equality of opportunity.

We recognise that this Act brings together into one Act those areas now known as 'protected characteristics' that qualify for protection from discrimination such as age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation.

Aims:

- To enable children to live, play and learn amicably
- To help children learn that diversity and difference are valued and welcomed
- To make sure that success in school is not dependent upon being able-bodied, belonging to any particular culture, gender, social class, sexual orientation, family circumstance or majority group
- To make sure every adult in school is able to fulfil their role without hindrance and with every support and assistance.

Guiding Principles:

To achieve these aims, we all support and apply the following guiding principles to help us: make decisions, to evaluate the impact of our work and to inform the way that we act individually and collectively as members of the Ambition Federation community:

- Children are valued as individuals and encouraged and enabled to be confident, successful and open-minded learners
- Families, children, staff and governors work together to set and meet high standards of attendance, learning and behaviour
- We oppose all prejudice, discrimination and exclusive practices and work to ensure that everyone is regarded as important in our community
- Staff and governors ensure that they are knowledgeable, fair, adaptable,
- We always provide a high-quality learning environment and an inclusive, diverse and wide-ranging curriculum. We will always make clear, open and effective decisions which best support children's learning. These aims and principles also relate to the government's 'Every Child Matters' agenda with its aim for every child, whatever their background or their circumstances, to have the support they need in order to:
- Be healthy

- Stay safe
- Enjoy and achieve
- Make a positive contribution
- Achieve economic well-being

We believe that everyone has the right to be treated with dignity and respect. We are opposed to any direct or indirect discrimination against individuals or groups whatever their age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.

We all have a responsibility to ensure equality permeates in to all aspects of school life and that everyone is treated equally irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation. We want everyone connected with this school to feel safe, secure, valued and of equal worth.

We have high expectations of all pupils and we aim to provide them with every opportunity to succeed by providing the highest standards of teaching and learning.

We are opposed to any member of the school personnel or others connected with the school being victimized, harassed or bullied by another based on assumptions about their status in the afore mentioned categories or on any other grounds. Also, we will not discriminate against anyone because of their political affiliation.

In order to achieve the aims of this policy we will take measures of positive action to encourage or facilitate the employment or training of minority or disadvantaged groups as we recognise that the avoidance of discrimination is not sufficient in ensuring that equality exists in this school.

We wish to work closely with the School Council and to hear their views and opinions as we acknowledge and support Article 12 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child that children should be encouraged to form and to express their views.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. Therefore, an equality impact assessment has been undertaken and we believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.
