

Together in truth and faith we learn and grow as God's family

Separated Parents Policy

At St Francis Catholic Primary school we recognise that while some parents may be divorced or separated, both have a right to be informed of, and involved in, their child's educational progress.

Evidence shows that after separation children do best when those around them cooperate, provide stability, and avoid conflict. We understand that this can be difficult and parents can become estranged. Our aim is to work with all parties to promote positive family involvement. This policy clarifies what is expected from separated parents and carers, the school and its staff.

It is the responsibility of parents to inform the school when there is a change in the family's circumstances. We need to be kept up to date with contact details, arrangements for collecting children and emergencies.

The information provided to school when the pupil was enrolled, detailing whether both parents have parental responsibility, will be presumed to be correct unless a court order or original birth certificate proving otherwise is provided to the school.

All diary dates, Newsletters, and Head Teacher's letters are available on our website at www.stfrancismorley.org.uk Class emails will be sent to both parents. Parents are responsible for providing a correct email address. When paper letters are sent home with pupils and we expect parents to communicate these messages to each other as and when appropriate.

Unless we are informed by the parents, we will hold one parent's evening appointment per child where both parents are welcome and we expect parents to communicate with each other regarding these arrangements. We expect parents to liaise and communicate directly with each other in matters such as the ordering of school photographs; tickets for performances and other instances.

Both parents are entitled to receive progress reports and review their child's pupil records. Progress reports will be sent to the parent with whom the child resides with the expectation that he/she will share the report with the other parent. The school will email copies of progress reports to the non-custodial parent if a request is submitted.

Both parents are legally entitled to collect their child from school unless a court order is provided that states otherwise. In all cases, the school will be mindful of its safeguarding responsibilities and may use its discretion not to send a child home with a particular parent.
