

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been a busy final week of term and it was wonderful to see so many parents, in school, on Thursday afternoon to watch their children perform in our first poetry recital of the school year. The aim of the recital is to build all the children's confidence in their oracy and performance skills, and as usual they didn't disappoint. The children tried so hard to work together to produce a team performance of their poems and the whole event was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

I would like to say a personal thank you to those parents who gave up their time, on Tuesday morning, to formalise our PTA committee and get our fundraising endeavours underway for this year. The new committee is very much a team effort with parents pairing up to take on the different committee roles as well as offering to be a volunteer. Look out for more information on this, and our fundraising efforts for the upcoming Winter Fair on the PTA noticeboard in the playground and in the newsletters next term.

Finally, I would like to thank you all for all the effort and support you have given this term in terms of attendance, homework, reading... the list goes on.

Enjoy the half term break everyone.

DLD Awareness Day at All Souls Primary

Last Friday, our pupils took part in a range of fun activities to celebrate DLD Awareness Day and learn more about Developmental Language Disorder (DLD).

We started by watching a PowerPoint all about DLD and how it affects communication. Then, children became DLD Detectives, searching the school for DLD facts hidden on purple and yellow papers made with InPrint.

Each class wrote the facts they found on coloured paper strips and joined them together to create beautiful paper chains.

Prizes went to Year 5, who did an amazing job finding 59 DLD facts, and Year 2, who made a fantastic effort creating a paper chain that stretched right across their classroom!

It was a wonderful way to raise awareness and celebrate all the different ways we communicate.

We are pleased to introduce you all to our new play club Providers, who will be taking over the provision after October half term. Bookings and payments will be done through their app. Please note, booking will no longer be done through the office and is solely done online by parents, including last minute bookings.
