

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week's newsletter is dedicated to all things reading!

Thank you to those parents who attended Mrs Legg's Reading Workshop, on Tuesday, to learn about why reading to, and with your child, is so important.

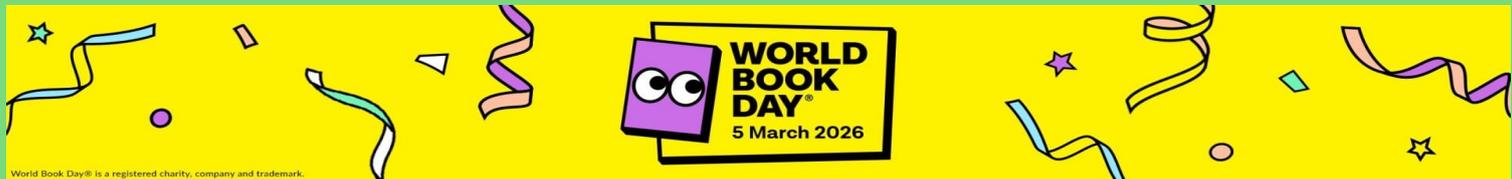

Once again, thank you to everyone who went above and beyond for this year's World Book Day. From the children to the staff, everyone put in so much effort to make it such a wonderful parade, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Ms Ascough was so disappointed to have missed you all in your brilliant costumes, but she has enjoyed looking at all the photos we have shared with her.

In the afternoon, the older children buddied up with the younger children to read some of their favourite books, which was lovely to see. Miss Cooley and Y6 headed over to our partnership school, Soho Parish, to read with their Reception class. The line of book characters walking through Soho was quite the spectacle! Today, the Y6 children from Soho have been to visit our Reception class, as they are celebrating Book Day today. It was so exciting for the children to be reading with a different set of children.

Have a lovely weekend everyone!

Jo Plesniak
Head of School
