Autumn 1

Christian Value: Friendship

British Value: Democracy

Core subjects this half term

English

Reading

Our class text this half term is The Orchard Book of Greek Myths.

Writing

Children will write their own five-part myth inspired by the class text, where the character flaw drives the outcome of the text. Grammar for this unit will focus on conjunctions to express time, place cause and expanded noun phrases.

They will then write simple instructions about something they know well using precise language and phonically plausible spelling.

Maths

This half term children will be securing their knowledge of number and place value by exploring the relationship between 1, 10, 100 and 1,000. We will then move on to addition and subtraction.

Our timestables recall recaps on the 2 x tables in the first week, before moving on to the 4, the 8 times tables, exploring the relationship between them.
