What a Half Term!

This is the bit of the year that whizzes by at an alarming rate! Having just taken down the Nativity Crib, it is half term already. And...we've got through such a lot, as usual. Thank you to all of you for attending Parent Consultations and for supporting your children and the school in this important way. It's only 10 minutes, but some vital connection and information is always shared. I hope that the rain stops so that you can enjoy the outdoors with your children and families over half term. See you in a week!

Mr. McNicholas
