This week at Harewood

The children have had a fantastic last week in school. They all continued to work hard and very much deserved their party celebrations yesterday!

The new term

After the Christmas break, school will reopen to the children on Monday 5th January. Our new theme will be all about transport and journeys. Please remember, our curriculum overviews and information about what we plan to teach, and when we plan to teach it, is available on our website. There are also ideas for ways in which you can support your child's learning at home.
