Harewood Book Swap Week

Dear Parents/Carers,

We are very excited to be doing another Book Swap Week at Harewood Infant School – the last one was a huge success! This is a lovely opportunity to celebrate our shared love of reading and to help our children experience the joy of choosing a different story to take home.

During the week commencing Monday 23rd March, children are warmly invited to bring in good-quality books that they no longer read or have outgrown. We are very happy to accept as many books as you would like to donate. Every contribution helps to make the event special for all of our children. Please send the children into school with their books and they can give them to their class teacher. All donated books will be carefully collected and organised ready for our Book Swap Event on Friday 27th March.

Every child who donates books during the week will receive a book swap voucher. On Friday, we will turn the school hall into our very own book swap shop, where after school you are invited to bring your child to the school hall and they can exchange their voucher for a new-to-them book to treasure and enjoy, completely free of charge.

Any books that remain after the Book Swap will be thoughtfully donated to others in need, such as local charities, community groups and organisations that support children and families. This ensures that every donated book continues to be valued and enjoyed, while also extending the positive impact of our event beyond our school community

Reading opens doors. It sparks imagination, builds confidence, strengthens language skills and helps children to better understand the world around them. A love of reading is one of the most valuable gifts we can nurture, and it supports learning across every area of the curriculum.

Our Book Swap not only gives children the excitement of choosing a different book, it also encourages generosity, sustainability and the simple happiness that comes from sharing stories with others.

Thank you so much for your support. We are really looking forward to seeing the children excitedly choosing their books and filling the hall with enthusiasm for reading.

Warmest wishes,
Harewood Infant School
