WWJD

What Would Jesus Do?

Oak: Beatrix for friendship – Beatrix is always a good friend to others.

Ash: Tobias - showing the value of courage, using his bravery to overcome challenges.

Maple: Billy - for showing service and wisdom in worship times and always having a reflective answer.

Elm: Elektra – for perseverance for not giving up when her electrical quiz wouldn't work

Rowan: Hannah: for showing perseverance and courage whilst sharing answers in class and during the SUMO worship for Mrs Murphy.

Subject Spotlight

Computing

Our learning this week

Oak: "I enjoyed making portraits using 2paint" Eric

Ash: "I like using Scratch to make different programs and changing the colours." Effie

Maple: Debugging in Computing is fun and important so that the programme works properly! - Lucas

Elm: We learnt about light sensors and control and I am looking forward to programming my Micro:bit to create a nightlight- Thomas

Rowan: We are learning about 'sigma' in our lessons on Excel. Ollie

Happier January

Oak: Say positive things to the people you meet.

Ash: This week we tried something new – using a 'working out' page in our Maths Books

Maple: Go to bed in good time and allow yourself to recharge!

Elm: Be gentle with yourself when you make mistakes

Rowan: Look for the good in others and noticing their strengths

'Let your light shine in the world' (Matthew 5:16)

Proud Moments

Well done to our football team, who attended the West Lancashire finals on Thursday, coming 3rd overall!

Faith in the Forest

Ash Class Wednesday 4th March

Hattie joins us again on the 4th March for a session in the forest all about courage. This will take place in the afternoon, so all children taught by Mrs Murphy in the afternoon will take part. Long trousers and long sleeves needed along with warm layers and suitable shoes.

Awe and Wonder

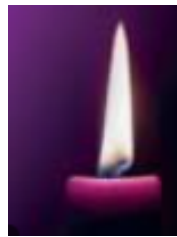

9th February 2026

On this special day in school, we will be focusing on what spirituality is - sense that there could be something larger than us out there that created our beautiful world! To explore this, we are having a special themed day using our amazing outdoor space (weather permitting). The focus will be on the wonder of the world and allow children to experience those wow moments!

HOLOCAUST
MEMORIAL
DAY 27/1

This Wednesday

9am at Tarleton Holy Trinity

This year we will be marking the occasion at Tarleton Holy Trinity church, alongside Mere Brow and Tarleton Holy Trinity Primary. Year 6 will be representing our school and sharing a poem with the congregation. You are welcome to join us at the service to mark this significant day.

No Outsiders Week
Next week!

Week beginning the 26th January is our No Outsiders Week in school. Each class will be using their age-appropriate novel to explore equality and diversity in our society. Look out on Seesaw for the amazing work and responses produced by the children!
