NATIONAL SCHOOLS SINGING PROGRAMME

ARCHDIOCESE SINGING PROGRAMME

Today, we welcomed Miss Callacher. Miss Callacher is a choral director and will be visiting each week to work with Year 2 and Year 3. Miss Callacher will teach the classes many aspects of the music curriculum through modern and traditional songs and hymns.

This is the first time the programme has come to Wigan and in time, they hope to establish an area choir which will be open for all pupils to join from the participating schools.

The Archdiocese Singing Programme is part of the wider 'National Schools Singing Programme'.

The National Schools Singing Programme is for all Catholic dioceses in the UK and Anglican cathedrals to create or enhance their own music programmes for children educated in state schools.

READING Year 6 have become reading buddies to our reception children and Year 4 have been reading with Year 2 this week. Our older children are wonderful role models and ambassadors of reading to our younger children. Well done everyone.
