Value for January – Commitment

In assembly this week we were thinking about the different titles that Jesus has such as 'Lamb of God' and why those titles were chosen. The children were very reflective and linked this particular title to Jesus sacrificing his life so that our sins could be forgiven.

Saint Maximilian led a wonderful assembly linked to our current R.E. topic of 'Galilee to Jerusalem'. They reminded us about the Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes. We thought about the differences between them and which they preferred and why. Our mission was to try to be forgiving and a peacemaker both in our words and in our actions.

Class Assemblies

Assemblies take place in either school hall from 9a.m.

Year of Reading

National Year of Reading 2026

2026 is the National Year of Reading. The Department for Education has launched a UK-wide campaign designed to help people rediscover the joy of reading. The 'Go All In' campaign aims to bring reading to everyone through their passions.

To celebrate this, we will be launching a special Reading Café. Parents and children will be invited to enjoy a shared reading experience in the school halls, which will be magically transformed into a café. You can choose a book to read together and enjoy some quiet time with your child.

Parents are warmly invited to attend on the following afternoons this term from 2:30 p.m.:

Wednesday 4th February Saint Francis

Wednesday 11th February Saint Mary

Wednesday 4th March Saint Catherine

Wednesday 11th March Saint Angela

Wednesday 25th March Saint Christopher

We look forward to welcoming you for this special celebration of reading

We currently have vacancies in Years 3 and 5 so if you know any families with children in non-Catholic schools in these year groups, please encourage them to apply.

Prayer for Commitment

Loving God,

Thank you for the gifts you give us each day.

Help us to do our best in everything we do in our learning, our play, and our friendships.

Teach us to keep trying when things are hard,
to finish what we begin,
and to be kind and responsible members
of our school community.

May our words and actions show care for others,
and may we always grow in courage, honesty, and commitment.

Amen.

Have a lovely weekend.

What Parents & Educators Need to Know about AI TOYS

This festive season, the newest toys on the shelves do not just blink or make noise; they listen. Many now come with artificial intelligence (AI), allowing them to talk, learn, and even respond to a child's emotions. These toys can be educational and engaging, but they also collect, store, and process information. This guide explains what that means for families and why it matters.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

TOYS THAT LISTEN AND LEARN

When a toy uses AI, it collects data such as voice recordings, interactions, and biographical details. This information is sent to remote servers, where it is analyzed to improve responses. Your child's voice becomes training data, which may be stored indefinitely or shared with third parties.

WEAK SECURITY PROTECTIONS

Some AI toys have poor password protection or open network connections. Others may have microphones or cameras that stay on, even when the toy appears to be off. This can lead to recordings being made without your knowledge, including conversations unrelated to play.

ARTIFICIAL VOICES, REAL INFLUENCE

For very young children, an AI companion may become one of the first voices they interact with regularly. If that voice shows humor, empathy, or authority, it can shape how a child learns to communicate. If the model is trained, then part of what is learned is artificial as well.

PRESSURE TO KEEP ENGAGING

Some toys reward repeated use or track engagement, encouraging children to interact more. When children compare how their toys perform, it creates pressure to play more often. This increases the amount of data collected and can make learning feel like competition.

MARKETING THROUGH PLAY

Toys that learn a child's preferences may feed that data into future advertising. A toy that knows a child's favorite color or hobby could help a company design more targeted marketing to that child and their family.

PLAYTIME AS DATA TRAINING

The information collected from children helps train AI systems. Their voice, emotional responses, and behavior shape how machines 'understand' people. Play becomes part of a much larger system that influences how future technologies behave.

Advice for Parents & Educators

START WITH A CONVERSATION

Talk to young people. Explain that some toys learn from what they say and do. Help them understand that even friendly technology should have boundaries, and to ask questions about it. Curiosity is healthy, blind trust is not.

SET LIMITS ON USE

Turn off Wi-Fi or Bluetooth when the toy is not in use. Check for updates regularly, as they can change privacy or safety settings. Most connected toys like any smart device, they should be monitored, updated, and switched off when not in use.

RESEARCH BEFORE YOU BUY

Look for toys that work offline or store data locally. Check for a free or demo version so you can test how it behaves. Read privacy policies to understand what data is collected, where it goes, and whether it's shared with others.

MODEL DIGITAL AWARENESS

Children learn from adults. If they see you checking privacy settings, reading terms, and talking openly about online safety, they are more likely to do the same. Show them how to question technology in a healthy way.

REVIEW PRIVACY SETTINGS

Find out where the data is stored and who has access to it. Some companies sell or share data with advertisers. If the toy connects through an app, check what it requests access to and limit those permissions whenever possible.

BALANCE AI WITH REAL PLAY

All toys are fun and creative, but they are not a replacement for real human interaction. Encourage time away from technology with activities that foster emotional and social development. Use AI toys to support learning, not define it.

Meet Our Expert

Claire Hawking is Executive Director of Kompas Education. She advises governments, school trusts, and global organisations on AI governance and safeguarding, helping schools and families understand how technology shapes learning, wellbeing, and the digital future of children.
