

What should you know?

Periods of British history from stone age to the bronze age. Romanisation of Britain. Britain was influenced by the Saxons and Vikings. Whilst known periods in history were taking place, other periods in history were happening alongside. We know about history from different sources of evidence.

Key Vocabulary

Mesoamerica Indigenous Maya
Pok-a-tok
Civilisation
Hieroglyphics
Climate
Temple
Sacrifice
Agriculture Sustainability
Food miles
Fairtrade

Images

Year 6 knowledge organiser: Hola Mexico (History/Geography)

Mexico is located in North America. Mexico is bordered by the Pacific Ocean, the Caribbean Sea, and the Gulf of Mexico; the United States is to the north, and Belize and Guatemala are to the south.

What will you learn?

Where is Mexico? North America, Central America (Mesoamerica) South America. What is Mexico like?

Where the Mayans came from and when they were around.

Who were the Mayans? - finding out about their culture, traditions and achievements.
Mayan trade-cocoa, maize. Fairtrade chocolate.
El Dia de los Muertos.
Mexican foods.

Music

Key Vocabulary

Notation
Speed (allegro and adagio)
Getting faster/getting slower
(accelerando/rallentando)
Time signatures
Incantation cacharpaya (pan pipes).
Mariachi bands- Santano, Smooth

Stone Age and
Bronze Age Britain
800BC

Iron Age Britain
800BC to 43AD

Roman Britain
43AD to 410AD

Anglo-Saxon Britain
450AD to 1066AD

Norman Britain
1066AD to 1154AD

Medieval Britain
1154AD to 1485AD

Maya Settlements
develop 1000BC

Large stone structure
built in Maya cities'
750BC

Maya use a monarchy government and develop writing system
300BC

Maya become one of the most significant civilisations
250AD

The Maya begin to decline
900AD

Spanish explorers take land and wealth from the Maya 1500AD