What a fantastic week we have had in school. We started with our Christmas plays and as usual, were blown away by the performances of our amazing children. They really were outstanding and I hope that you enjoyed it as much as we did.

The plays were followed today by our carol service in church, led by Year 6, who did a fantastic job leading the service. Thanks to the team at church for the refreshments and to all of you for being there.

Just a reminder from the team at St Mary's - don't forget the East Haddon Live Nativity starting in church at 3:00pm on Christmas Eve.

It has been lovely to see everyone over the last few days and we have been very grateful for all of your kind words, cards and gifts received in school.

We've had a lot of fun at school today with our party lunch followed by games.

and a special visitor ...

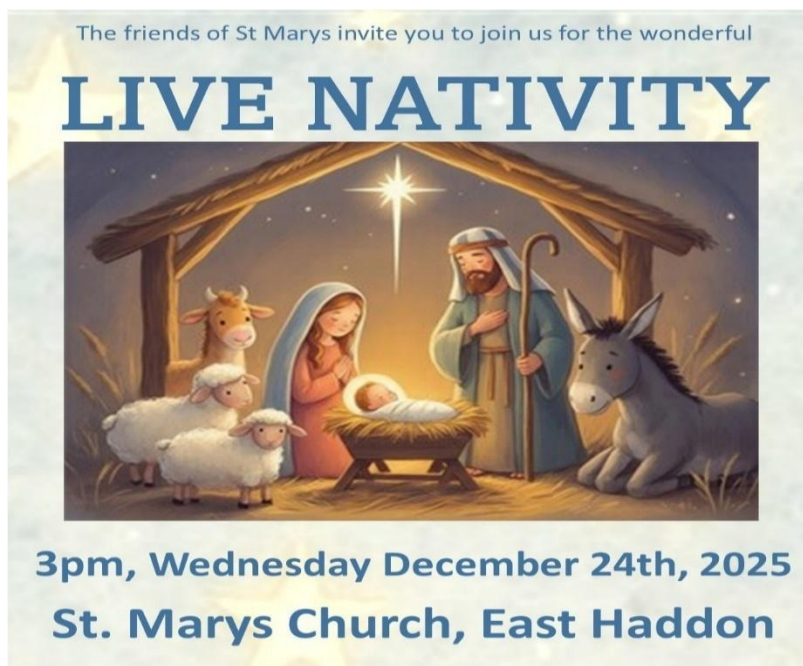

We close today and re-open to children on January 6th at 8:40am (breakfast club 7:45am as usual). Please note that there will be Forest School for Reception/Year 1 & Years 2/3 on this day so please remember kit.

Thank you all once again for your support over the last term. On behalf of the team here at school I wish you a very merry Christmas and a happy and healthy 2026.
